John Rumsey deteated the Douglas team Saturday in the second of the sleeping powders in broken doses from series, pitching the best game that has a former Texan, lately removed to been seen on the El Paso field this season. He came dangerously near shutting the hard hitting Douglas bat-ters off without a hit. With a score of 4 to 1 Rumsey held the Demons to one hit until Le Brand connected for a double in the seventh. Pitts pitched a good game for Douglas, but was outclassed by Rumsey, who was working in the best form of has shown since he signed with the Mavericks. He mixed up his curves so that the crafty Douglas batters could not guess what they had coming and he crossed up the best of them with his fast high ball when they were expecting an easy one over on the outside. Rumsey makes a fine running mate for the two left handers, Booles and Anderson forming with them a trio of pitchers which should top the league his season. Harley Klefer played right field for the locals and accepted his two chances in his usual snappy style of play. The score: El Paso-
